Memories

REV. S. A. ELLIS.

The Rev. S. A. Ellis, son of Ransom and Mary Ellis, was born in Sumner County, Tennessee, March the 9th, 1824; was converted in Humphries County, Tennessee, in October, 1837; was educated in Franklin College, Tennessee; was licensed to preach at Waverly, Tennessee, in 1858; served as a local preacher for ten years; in 1868 was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and received into full connection at Lebanon, Tennessee, in 1870. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Robert Paine at Jackson, Tennessee, in 1866, and ordained elder by Bishop George F. Pierce at Lebanon, Tennessee, in 1870. He served the following charges in the Tennessee Conference: Swan Circuit, Centerville Circuit, Dickson Circuit, Sparta Circuit. In 1876 he transferred to the North Mississippi Conference, where he served the following charges: Lovetown Circuit, Chulahoma Circuit, Senatobia-Lewisburg Circuit, Pittsboro Circuit, Cornersville Circuit. He was then in the superannuated list for two years. After serving the Cornersville Circuit for one year he was again placed on the superannuated list where he remained for twelve years, which closed his earthly life. Bro. Ellis gave clear and positive evidence of a sound conversion and abiding evidence of the saving presence of the grace and Spirit of God, hence his daily life was a constant demonstration of the truth and power of the Christian religion. His daily walk was an expression of Paul's sublime declaration, "to me to live is Christ." He was a firm believer in the doctrines and policy of his church, and the substance of his preaching was "Christ, and Him crucified," and the cardinal doctrines growing out of that great fact. His interest in and devotion to Christianity and his church found no abatement in the fact of his failing ability to be an active pastor. His interest in and zeal for his home church was beautiful, and his heart went out for the community at large. He was his pastor's true friend; and he not only assisted him as best he could in his pastoral duties but gave special attention to the younger people.

He was superintendent of the Sunday School in Potts Camp, after he was placed on the superannuated list as long as his physical strength was sufficient for the work. Not only was he true in every way to the cause of Christ and the church but he took special interest in the administration of the civil affairs of his town. While he was not a politician he was true to Christ's teachings: "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's." Few men exercised a more effective, commanding and controlling influence for good on all questions than he did. This is not a tribute paid, now that he is dead, but was repeated o'er and o'er while he was living. On the 8th of December, 1903, he passed triumphantly to his reward in heaven. I am not surprised to learn that he talked with the angels just before his spirit passed out of his body. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

J. D. CAMERON.

REV. B. S. RAYNER.

Benjamin S. Rayner, son of Thomas C. and Nancy Rayner, was born near Spring Hill Church, in Holmes County, Miss., March 26, 1844. He was born again when nine years of age at Shady Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in the same county. He joined the M. E. Church, South, July 8, 1866. He had seven sisters and four brothers. Three sisters and two brothers survived him, but one sister, Mrs. Campbell, has since followed him to the better world. He was educated at the Universities of Alabama and Mississippi. He was licensed to preach at Spring Hill Church, Oct. 21, 1871, Rev. W. P. Barton being his presiding elder. He was received on trial in the North Mississippi Conference at Kosciusko, in November, 1875; ordained local deacon by Bishop Paine, Nov. 28, 1875; transferred to White River Conference at Augusta, Ark., in 1877; ordained elder by Bishop George F. Pierce in 1880. In his first year he was on the Shuqualak circuit; then on Mineral circuit, in Arkansas, as a supply. While in the White River Conference he served the Laconia, Wittsburg, and Pocahontas works. Returning to the North Missisissippi Conference, he was assigned to Senatobia, Lewisburg, Pontotoc, Ashland, Prairie, Shuqualak, Tillatoba, Early Grove, Pleasant Ridge, Elzy, Cedar Bluff and Ripley, circuits, when he was forced by ill health to take a supernumerary relation. At one time he offered himself as a missionary to Japan, but his poor health prevented his acceptance by the Board of Missions. But nothing could daunt his burning zeal for the service of God, and at his own expense he spent two years in Japan and China—mainly in the former country—where he distributed Bibles, and did such other Christian work as he could. Later he did like service distributing Bibles for the American Bible Society in Mexico during a period of eighteen months. At the time of his death he had in contemplation a visit to St. Louis for the purpose of giving the Bible to the various foreign people who might be attracted to the great International Exposition held there this year. When ill-health prevented his doing pastoral work, he spent his time in distributing the Word of God, and, in addition to his Bible work in foreign lands, he spent much time in Bible work in his native State.

The key to his character was his absolute and continual recognition of God. He acknowledged God in all his ways. There were no religious days and worldly days with him. No one ever knew him to forget his sense of responsibility to his God. The consciousness of his accountability to God was always with him. He was no occasional or Sunday servant of the Most High. His heart was literally stayed upon God. If a man can be over-conscientious—which I doubt—he was. He was a systematic man—systematically industrious, systematically thrifty, systematically frugal, systematically liberal, systematically studious of God's Word, systematically prayerful, systematically self denying, systematically conscientious, systematically devout, systematically unselfish, systematically zealous in all the things that make for righteousness. His watchword was faithfulness; his principle of life was consecration.

On the third of May, 1904, after but a few hours' illness, he passed quickly away, and the next day he was laid to rest in the old Spring Hill Cemetery, where his ancestors sleep, and where his early life was spent, to await the resurrection of the just.

N. G. AUGUSTUS.

REPORTS.

THE SPIRITUAL INTERESTS OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee rejoices to note that the reports given by the preachers of their respective works during the past year show marked advances over the preceding year along most all lines, if not in all.

We note again with special pleasure the increased liberality of our people in the support of our missionary enterprises. This spirit, representing as it does, the very soul of our holy Christianity, we accept as indicating a fairly good spiritual state.

We note further, that most every place where money has been needed to meet the material needs of the Church, there has been a promptness in responding, with an increased liberality. But with gladness and with more thankfulness do we record the fact that many successful revival meetings have been held during the year, resulting in many conversions and additions to the Church.

From the above we would be justified it may seem in taking an optimistic view of things. We grant that the growing liberality of our people in the supporting of the various institutions of the church is of vital importance, and constitute some of the evidence of the touches of Divine love; but it may spring from hearts and hands that have never been moved by the love of God.

We should not suffer ourselves therefore to become oblivious to the fact that we are in an enemy's land, and that we are brought under the necessity of contending with formidable foes. The arch enemy of God and man is spoken of as "a roaring lion going about seeking whom he may devour." We have reasons to fear that his satanic influence is seen to express itself in the lives of many of our members who are more or less given to the card table, the theatre, the dance hall, the tipling habit, and the desecration of the Holy Sabbath. These are evils if indulged in will soon consume or hide from view all that is Divine in them, and rob them of all influence for good in the services for God. The most effective remedy for this state of things as we believe, is for the pastors to work for increasing the number of family altars in the homes of our people. Family altars are not likely to produce recruits for the army of those who seek recreation and amusement in ways at variance with the true spirit of the Master or the rules of the Church. A further means may be employed looking to the improvement of the spiritual state of the Church, to-wit, by calling the attention of our people to the fact that there is abundant need of more spiritual vitality and that the conditions thereto is earnest importunate prayer to Almighty God.

Therefore, we would offer the following resolution for adoption, to-wit:

That in all our charges where practicable, beginning with the third Sunday in January, 1905, that three weeks be observed as a week of prayer for more spiritual vitality and power.

R. A. ELLIS, for the Committee.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath, beg leave to submit the following report:

While the command, "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy," is sacredly observed by those who are faithful to their Lord, yet we note with sadness that there seems to be an increasing laxness in the observance of this commandment by many who bear the name of Christian.

That this command, written by the hand of God, the bulwark of our Christian civilization, should be so flagrantly violated until we have almost failed to notice it, challenges our most prayerful consideration.

It does seem that the time has come when our convictions should crystallize into a course of action that shall guarantee to the great host of sundry laborers the privilege of rest and of worship.

May the proclamation of their emancipation soon be sounded from one side of our great country to the other. We submit the following resolutions:

1. That we discourage our people from employing the Sabbath as a day of travel, being both demoralizing to themselves and pernicious in its example unto others.
2. That we deprecate the prevalent custom of patronizing the Sunday mails, and reading the secular dailies.
3. That we emphasize more in our preaching civic righteousness, and encourage the election of men who will enact laws that will prevent the needless violation of the Sabbath Day.
4. That we deplore the example of our legislative body in employing the Sabbath as a day for travel on official business.
5. That we suggest to our brethren an educational campaign upon this subject by sowing down our charges with tracts and leaflets that can be obtained from our National Sunday League, of which Bishop Hendrix is a member.

May the God of the Sabbath roll the burden of this crying evil upon our hearts and speed the time when all needless toil shall cease on His Holy Day.

P. E. DUNCAN, for the Committee.

ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee re-affirms the attitude of the Methodist Church, as strongly and unalterably opposed to the traffic in intoxicant liquors, in all its forms:

Not only are we opposed to the traffic, but to the use of all alcoholic drinks and liquors as a beverage, by the members of our church and by all men.

We should, as a Church, strive earnestly to maintain our historic record, as a temperance church. Not only drunkenness, but also dram-drinking, is forbidden by the general rules of the church.

We rejoice in the progress of the temperance cause, and the success of prohibitory efforts in the great commonwealth of Mississippi. The accursed and baleful whiskey-traffic has been prohibited by law, and the open saloon has been closed in all save a few counties of the state. But while we rejoice in this success of the temperance cause, this is not time for us to abate our zeal and relax our efforts for complete and ultimate victory.

The whiskey power, driven from the greater part of our State, has entrenched itself in some of the larger towns of the State, and from these strongholds, to dislodge it, will require the combined and persistent efforts of all the friends and forces of the temperance cause.

For the suppression of the blind-tiger evil in those localities where the open saloon has been closed, we recommend the formation of "Law and Order Leagues," or of such organizations as shall encourage and aid the municipal and other officers in the execution of law, and the prosecution of all who violate the law.

The whiskey-jug trade is a great and perhaps a growing evil. By means of it, many hundreds, perhaps thousands, of gallons of intoxicants are brought into prohibition towns and counties, all tending to debauch the young, and foster and keep alive the thirst for strong drink among our people. Whatever is possible, through Federal enactment, should be done in order to abate the great evil.

Our brethren of the Indian Mission Conference, through its Committee on Temperance, makes earnest request of all other annual conferences of our church and of all the synods, assemblies, associations and conventions, and of all bodies opposed to the liquor-traffic throughout the States to aid them in keeping out of the Indian Territory the open saloon when the Territory, with Oklohoma shall be admitted to statehood. They ask us to join them in memorializing Congress to grant them such protection as will fulfill in good faith the pledge of the Federal Government to the five civilized tribes.

Your Committee ask the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, First, That this Conference memorialize the Congress of the United States, through our Senators and Representatives, appealing to them to use their influence to secure the enactment of the Dolliver Hepburn Bill now pending and which looks to such regulation of the interstate laws as shall abate the evils of the jug-trade in those localities where porhibition now is.

Resolved, Second, That this Conference memorialize Congress, in accordance with the earnest request of the Indian Mission Conference, asking the protection of the Federal Government in the prevention of any form of legalized liquor traffic in the Indian Territory when it shall be admitted to statehood

We suggest that the Editor of the Conference Minutes be requested to present to Congress, in proper form, the memorials contemplated in the above resolutions.

T. C. WIER, Chmn. of Committee.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Board is gratified at the success and prospects of the American Bible Society in the bounds of our Conference. Prominence has been given to the needs of the Society and its aim is being set forth in a clear light by many of our preachers, and as a result there has been an increase in payments in the last four years from $697.50 to $1046.52 this year. The Board urges all of the pastors to pay their assessment in full and we request the presiding elders to refrain from suggesting any discrimination against the assessment on the various charges in their districts. We recommend the same assessment for the ensuing year and that it be apportioned as it has been this year. The presence and wise counsel of Rev. G. D. French is very helpful to the Board and we commend him for his faithfulness in his office. Again we urge our preachers to increase the circulation of the Bible Society Record, as we believe it to be a very helpful periodical.

S. A. BROWN, Secy.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Report No. 1—The New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals reports that it finds our conference organ, the New Orleans Christian Advocate, is not only out of debt and self-sustaining, but it is a business success. It is increasing its circulation and is growing in strength and usefulness. We commend Dr. Boswell for his successful management of this paper. We commend his fearless and intelligent advocacy of the truth therein, both as to secular and religious questions; and we recognize in his editorials clear, sound and faithful exponents of the doctrines and polity of our church, and of the teachings of the Holy Scriptures; and we recommend Dr. J. W. Boswell's reappointment as editor, and we also recommend the re-appointment of W. T. J. Sullivan, J. T. Murrah, and H. C. Morehead as Publishing Committee. But we also find that the great secular dailies are encroaching upon the legitimate domain of our church papers, and will, ultimately, crowd them out of the cities and towns, to a large extent, unless we give them more constant and substantial support. Therefore, since this conference at this session has, by resolution, continued the New Orleans Christian Advocate as its official organ for three years from this date, we urge every preacher and member in our connection to read this paper, and to come to its assistance in earnest, not only that it may withstand the competition of the secular press, but that its circulation may be increased in proportion to its merits and in proportion to the present and constantly increasing needs of the people.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK A. CRITZ, Chairman.

Report No. 2.

Your Committee on books and periodicals reports that:

The Publishing House Exhibit submitted by Messrs. Smith and Lamar, agents, at this session is more satisfactory and encouraging than any former report from that institution. In the language of the exhibit itself, "every department of the House proper has been operated at a profit:

Total sales for year up to March 31st, 1904.....	$ 451,254.54
Increase over last preceding year.....	13,978.16
Increase over year before that.....	29,972.10
Total year's profits	51,351.02
Cash in bank	33,563.28
Invested in Nashville city bonds.....	$100,000.00

"The Branch House at Dallas steadily increases in the volume of its business and profits." Its business is included in the above totals. The very efficient and successful management of these great institutions, by our agents, as thus shown, deserves the most emphatic commendation of the whole church.

The Publishing House in China for the establishment of which the General conference ordered $50,000.00 to be paid from the Publishing House fund, has already received $32,000.00 of that amount, of which $13,000.00 was paid during the year ending March 31st, 1904; since which time we have no report.

The Methodist Quarterly Review is for the first time reported as self-sustaining, and, for the future, we have reason to believe it will be a source of substantial income. It is a first class church magazine, and those who take and read it will find in every number the very best thought of some of the masters in theology, philosophy, science and literature. It deserves the patronage of all the preachers and laymen of the Southern Church, but should not be limited to these. There is no reason why such a periodical as this should not be passed into the hands of all classes of readers who appreciate a high order of magazine literature.

The Epworth Era, which has heretofore been published at a loss, is now paying its own expenses, and it meets a need among our young people for which there is no other periodical of equal merit.

The Children's Visitor is eagerly sought and read by our little folks, and is now justly considered as an indispensable part of our Sunday School literature.

The Sunday School Literature, consisting of the Magazine, Quarterlies and Illustrated papers, is so familiar to us all as to need neither report nor commendation. They are all excellent, but the magazine stands at the head of the list; and we know of nothing better. "The Explanatory Notes," "The Practical Application" and "The Voice from the East" are each indispensable to the Sunday School teacher, to say nothing of the many other good things in each magazine, and, of course that which is good for the teacher could be used with equal profit by the advanced pupils of the Sunday School.

Go Forward, a monthly periodical issued for 25 cents per year is our missionary organ; and we know of no place where so much can be bought for so little unless you invest your money in a Bible. This paper is filled with the very best missionary information and literature, and it is a holy inspiration to those that read it. It is not only good, but very good.

The Nashville Christian Advocate ranks with the very best weekly papers in the land, and among church papers there is nothing stronger. It is ably edited and full of attractive and instructive matter. Of course the Publishing House and all our periodicals are dependent upon us for their continued existence; so we urge our people and our ministers to greater fidelity and activity as to these great interests. We admonish our pastors to be more diligent in the distribution of our books of discipline, and in the sale and distribution of all our church periodicals.

The Colporter's reports shows he sold in our conference:

Books	$1,633.55
Church papers	242.35
Sunday School Literature	266.35
<hr/>
Total	$2,142.25

He is also Colporter for Mississippi Conference.

We recommend G. W. Bachman for re-appointment as Colporter.

Sunday School Board.

The Sunday School Board recommends the following appropriations for the ensuing year:

$75 to needy Schools to be used in the discretion of the agent of the Board on the recommendation of the pastor of the schools.

$100 for the purchase of Children's Day programs, the same to be purchased and distributed under the supervision of the agent of the Board.

Rev. R. T. Neblett, the agent of the Board, has made a detailed report of his work: He visited 89 pastoral charges; he had personal conference in the interest of the work with 106 superintendents, 100 pastors and 225 teachers; he personally conducted 25 teachers' meetings, made 88 public addresses and organized 9 study circles; he conducted Institutes at the Grenada, Winona, Durant, Columbus, Aberdeen, and Holly Springs District Conferences; he did institute work in several of the pastoral charges; he conducted two days' institutes at Arkabutla in the Sardis District, and Mars Hill, Winona District.

The Annual Institute was held at Tupelo Sept. 26, 27, and 28, under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Hamill, and was successful in every respect though not as widely attended by Sunday School officers and teachers as was desired. The expenses of this institute were almost wholly paid by special contributions from the Sunday Schools and by basket collections.

The more general observance of Children's Day is to be noted.

An investigation by our agent of the publishing house records shows that of our 3000 (in round numbers) officers and teachers in the Conference less than one thousand take and read the Sunday School Magazine.

The Children's Visitor is taken in less proportion.

The Board, both from the testimony of pastor and people and their own observations are constrained to commend the labor of Rev. R. P. Neblett, the Sunday School Agent for the past two years, during which we have had all of his time. He has been industrious, faithful and effective.

To enable him to take a theological course at Vanderbilt University, leave of absence was given him for the last month of the past conference year.

We recommend his re-appointment for the coming conference year, but his salary and service are not to begin till his return from Vanderbilt in the early summer from which time on he shall receive $60.00 per month and expenses. In the interval from now till then the Annual Year Book will be edited by him but the Board have arranged with Rev. J. A. Leech, its treasurer, to do the incidental clerical work and necessary correspondence with pastors, officers, and teachers.

We recommend that the conference approve this action of the Board and that the pastors continue to co-operate with the Board and its agent in their effort to stimulate the church to renewed interest in the great work of educating the children in the polity and doctrine of the church, of making them familiar with the letter and spirit of the Scriptures.

EDUCATION.

The work of education is a vital and essential feature of the great mission of the Church. Under the divinely-given commission, "Go teach the nations," we must not only carry the preached word to all, but hand in hand within it we must see that the territory won is properly garrisoned by schools. These schools must be pronouncedly Christian in character, equal to the best in equipment, and sufficient in number to place within the reach of all affiliated with our great connection an opportunity to obtain the highest intellectual and moral culture, under auspices which furnish all that is helpful and exclude all that is harmful.

The marching orders of our great Leader and the weighty consideration of expediency demand that we do likewise for our brethren across the seas. We must provide schools in every land where we plant our missions in order to train workers to evangelize their fellow-countrymen. The forces that uplift a nation must come chiefly from within, and not from without. So the establishment of Christian institutions of learning in the great heathen centers is a wise exhibition of ecclesiastical statesmanship, Like considerations, and others, make it imperative in the highest degree that we give like facilities for moral and mental improvement to the weaker race living among us. These people for whom Christ died are not in our midst of their own choice, nor ours. Our fathers always contended, and we believe they were right, that the negroes were here under the direction of an all-wise Providence. We have written no more splendid and inspiring chapter in our history than that which chronicles our work of giving the gospel to the slaves, and that worthy chapter of achievement for the black race is not yet closed. We must not do less, but more, toward their evangelization and education in the coming years. This is demanded alike by the highest considerations of Christianity, philanthropy, patriotism, and self-interest. We must, as their employers, neighbors, fellow-citizens, and fellow-Christians show them the "more excellent way." We can not fail to do this except at the risk of being untrue to God, false to ourselves, and disloyal to our country.

We submit herewith a more detailed statement concerning the institutions in which we as a Conference are especially interested:

Paine and Lane Colleges.

The history of Christian schools established for the colored people has been highly gratifying, and justifies us in enterprising larger things for them. We deeply regret the destruction by fire of Lane College, and we pledge ourselves, and urge our people, to aid in rebuilding the same as speedily as possible. We are pleased by the good report of the work being done at Paine Institute, and commend that school as worthy of the prayers and generous support of our great Methodist constituency.

Vanderbilt University.

This noble institution is the pride of Southern Methodism. With grounds and buildings worth $750,000; with an endowment of $1,400,000; with a science equipment valued at $175,000, and its large and extensive library, it stands in the very fore-front of Southern Colleges and is justly entitled to an honored place among the great universities of America. Its departments of professional education are well organized and splendidly equipped. Its theological department is ably maintained and is highly creditable to the Church. So we should be swift to recognize its claims upon us, and prompt in responding to its calls for assistance.

Correspondence School.

By authority of the General Conference there has been established in connection with the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University a Correspondence School for the guidance of candidates for admission and undergraduates in the Conferences, and also for those who, having completed the Conference course, desire to prosecute post-graduate courses.

We are gratified to note that several successful Biblical Institutions are being conducted annually under the auspices of this school.

Resolved, FIRST, That we urge our undergraduates to pursue the prescribed courses of study under the direction of this school.

SECOND, That we authorize the examining committees to accept certificates from this school in lieu of examinations held by themselves.

THIRD, That we commend the post-graduate work to our mature men.

FOURTH, That R. A. Meek, J. A. Bowen and J. R. Countiss be constituted a committee to arrange for a Biblical Institute, if found practicable, seeking the co-operation of the Correspondence School and of the Mississippi Conference Board of Education.

Millsaps College.

Your Board has carefully reviewed the record of Millsaps College for the year now closing. The grounds have been greatly improved and beautified and many of the buildings have been newly painted. Walks have been improved, fences repaired, and an admirable and adequate system of bathing facilities have been provided in Founder's Hall.

The curriculum of the College is as good as the best in the State, the manner of instruction is thorough, the examinations strict, and the grade of scholarship insisted upon by the faculty and aspired to by the student body is ideal.

The moral tone of the institution is excellent. A high ideal of Christian manhood is kept constantly before the students and a strong sense of honor permeates the student body as a whole. The Young Men's Christian Association has a large chapter in the college.

Briefly, we have in Millsaps College a high grade Institution, with imposing buildings, splendid equipment, an eminently gifted faculty, and an earnest, moral, hard-working student body of some two hundred and fifty members.

While all this is true we cannot ignore the conspicuous fact that Millsaps College is hampered, embarrassed, and narrowly circumscribed by lack of adequate funds to defray its necessary expenses. The state provides for its institution of similar purpose and grade some $50,000 per year. Yet the Church provides for Millsaps, doing about the same quantity and a no less inferior quality of work, only about $12,000 per year. But we have reached our limit. Millsaps must have a larger income. This is imperative, not only that we may advance to larger things, but that we may actually hold our own.

We are facing a real, a present, and an urgent need; and we feel it our plain duty promptly to meet this need. We, therefore, recommend that an assessment of $3,000 be levied on the Conference in favor of Millsaps College for the ensuing year.

Further, be it resolved, 1. That this body most heartily commend this splendid and eminently efficient Institution to the support and patronage of all our people.

2. That it is the sense of this body that within the next two years, North Mississippi Methodism should co-operate with Mississippi Methodism in raising $5,000 to be applied to the endowment fund of the College and that we recommend that the Board of Trustees of said College inaugurate plans for the raising of this sum.

3. That the President and faculty of Millsaps bestir themselves during vacations in advertising the College and in soliciting pupils for its halls.

4. That in the judgment of this body it is the eminent duty of every Methodist preacher in the Conference, to urge with the constant and full force of his influence all our people to educate all their sons at Millsaps College.

Grenada College.

We are gratified by the reports from Grenada College. The success attained shows wise planning, discriminating judgment, and forceful execution of approved plans. The fact that the Bible is a text-book throughout the entire course of study, and that the faculty and students maintain an Epworth League and a Missionary Society in active operation meets our unqualified approval. We commend the management for placing supreme emphasis upon the development of Christian character, and in maintaining a high grade of scholastic training. The approval and appreciation of our constituency are shown in the enrollment of the school, which is one hundred and ninety-three pupils, of which number one hundred and twenty-nine are boarding pupils; and there are one hundred and three music pupils. Four are from the Orphans' Home, and the money arising from the assessment made by the Annual Conference enables the management to give reduced rates to thirty-four pupils. We recommend that an assessment for this worthy purpose be made $2000.

The business management shows gratifying results. In the past two and one-half years all salaries have been paid in full, all current expenses have been met, and there has been added to the equipment of the school five thousand dollars in material things—all paid for.

We approve the extensive improvements made by the trustees; and authorize them to carry forward contemplated additions; and to that end offer for your adoption the following:

Resolved, That express authority and powers are hereby conferred on the Board of Trustees of Grenada College to issue bonds, debentures, or notes for and in the name of said College under its corporate authority, on its credit and responsibility in such amount and for such time as they may deem necessary in order to give the institution such accommodations and equipment as will enable it to do in a reputable manner the work in education that it is intended it shall do; or to acquire other property, and they may mortgage any part or all of the property of said College, and all property that may hereafter be acquired, as security for the payment of any bonds or notes which may be issued as herein contemplated, and the President and Secretary of the Board of Trustees shall execute in the name of said College under its corporate authority all bonds, debentures, notes, deeds, mortgages and other papers necessary for the proper and legal transaction of the business of said corporation as may be directed by an order only entered upon the minutes of the proceedings of said Board of Trustees. Provided that in no case shall bonds be issued in an amount greater than thirty thousand dollars.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The very simple but expressive words of our Discipline, paragraph 249, should be familiar to every pastor since they tell what is the purpose of the Epworth League. These words are commended and an intimate acquaintance invited. This institution aims at training our young people for service in the church. It does not interfere with and is not part of any other church work. It represents a something which is and which must be done. Our young people are to be saved hence must be taught and employed. Do this work we must, and why not do it as the church directs.

It is now a vigorous young member of our family of church institutions. There has been gratifying increase in Chapters and members this year. The report of the book-agents will show that the Epworth Era is now more than self-sustaining and the paper itself has come to be most excellent and is very near to becoming a magazine. The League now has its literature in the reading course, institute series, tracts, etc., with which to do the thorough work of teaching and training. Those who have not examined this literature would be greatly surprised should they do so. Your board insists that every pastor take the Era and read the other literature.

Your board has had before it a communication asking corporation in a movement to re-organize and bring the Sea Shore Epworth League Assembly under the direction of the General League Board; and request the election of Rev. B. P. Jaco as commissioner to represent us in said work.

Young People's Day was observed in several congregations this year with good results and we renew our purpose to carry out this line of work. We call special attention to the necessity for sending in the 10 cent assessment to the general secretary.

We urge upon the pastors and presiding elders to give this institution its deserved place in all their work. Therefore,

Resolved 1st, That question three, part first be given careful attention in every quarterly conference, and the League due consideration in district conferences.

Resolved 2nd, That Young People's Day be observed in all our congregations on Easter Day or such other Sunday as may be most convenient.

MISSISSIPPI'S ORPHANS' HOME.

To the Bishop and Members of the North Mississippi Annual Conference in Session, Dec. 7, 1904:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—The Board of Directors of the Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home present to you the following Annual Report through their Executive Committee.

At the last session of your Body, we reported the Home in a very gratifying condition. Many improvements had been made, including an excellent steam heating system at a cost of $1315.00. Early in the present conference year we were informed of serious dissensions and complications in this Charitable Institution. The Board after a careful deliberation appointed Rev. W. T. Griffin, who had been Manager, to be Field Agent to solicit funds for the expenses of the Home and for the erection of a new brick dormitory, which had been suggested to you in our last Annual Report, and elected Rev. W. S. Shipman as Manager to reside with his family in the Home and have parental care of the Home family. These two officers entered on their respective duties in March, 1904. Further improvements, made necessary for sanitary reasons, were introduced at the cost of $338.15.

At one time there were many cases of sickness among the children and four died.

On July 11, the main building with nearly all the clothing, furniture, etc., was destroyed by fire. It is a merciful blessing that the fire occurred in daylight and that no life was lost and no one injured. The loss was great. The building with steam pipes, boiler, radiators, water pipes, water closets recently introduced, were well worth $18,000.00. The insurance was $7,500. The good citizens of Water Valley were kind and gave tender attentions to the little ones. By arrangement with the Trustees of Hamilton College we leased the college building for a year. The Orphanage is domiciled there at this time. It is important for us to have a building ready by the summer of 1905.

The following is from the Annual Report of the Treasurer, Rev. M. L. Burton:

"I have drawn nothing from the Treasurer since the fire."

The County School Board grants the Home a public school for about an average of seven months per year, allowing us pay for a principal and one assistant. Miss Diggs is Principal and Miss Mary Coon, Assistant; both graduates of the Grenada College. They are doing faithful work. We have 80 pupils in school. Instruction is given in the usual grammar school branches and in Latin and Music. Special and constant attention is given to religious instruction and training.

Seven girls from the Home are in College. Whitworth takes one free and one for $75 per year; Grenada takes two free and two at $75 per year each; Miss Mary Coon pays the expenses of her two sisters by her teaching in the Home. So seven are in college at an expense of $225.00 per year to the Home.

Rev. W. T. Griffin, Agent, reports as the total amount that passed through his hands since March 16, 1904, $5510.86.

Total subscription to be paid at Annual Conference $2700.00.

Of the income in this report $546.62 was for the new dormitory.

As the terms of office of J. B. Streater and Rev. J. A. Bowen, as Directors expire at the session of the Conference, we request you to select their successors.

Notwithstanding the severe losses and the changes that had to be made in the Home, the work has gone on with commendable steadiness and great good has been done in rearing and educating the orphan children. Rev. W. S. Shipman and his pious wife have shown zeal and devotion in the discharge of their numerous and difficult and delicate duties as the parental heads of this large household.

Rev. W. T. Griffin resigned his position as Agent to take effect Nov. 1, 1904. Rev. W. S. Shipman resigned on Nov. 7. We call your prayerful attention to the resolution adopted by the Board on Nov. 3, 1904, as follows and ask that you act upon them at your present session:

WHEREAS, The Orphans' Home in Water Valley was burned July 11, 1904; And, WHEREAS, It became out duty to restore the needed building in Water Valley, or remove the Home to some other locality; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. In view of the generous interest of the people of Jackson, Miss., in the Methodist Orphans' Home, and in view of the liberal advantages in materials, we, the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home, recommend to the two Conferences that the Home be removed to Jackson, Miss., provided the citizens of said city will contribute $10,000 in cash.

2. That, in recommending the removal of the Home, we do not intend any reflection on Water Valley or its people, but we desire to reiterate expressions of our appreciation of the many kindnesses the Home has received from them, especially at the time of the fire last July, and in the provision they enabled us to make for the maintenance of the Home in the emergency caused by said fire. It is with feelings of deep regret that we take this step. Our purpose is to secure greater accessibility, and larger facilities and advantages for the Home.

To fill the vacancies before mentioned we have elected Rev. Q. A. Oats as Manager and Agent, and request that he be appointed to this position.

JNO. H. SHERARD, for the Committee.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

We note with pleasure and gratitude to God, the progress made in each of our mission fields. That the aggregate increase in our membership is the largest ever reported in a single year; our communicants in foreign fields now numbering 14,243.

To these encouraging results we note that the total receipts for the year are $389,056.29. The payment on assessment was $310,934.37. The increase in total collections for the year was $22,875.66.

Nine annual conferences have paid their assessments for Foreign Missions in full, and about 2750 pastoral charges, or about one-half the number of the entire church, have made the same record.

The inviting fields were never so great nor the appeals so urgent as today. To respond to the increasing calls, the General Board of Missions requests that an increase of 10 per cent. be added to the assessment.

The Board has arranged with the Mississippi Conference for a joint mid-year meeting to be held in the bounds of the North Mississippi Conference, and hopes to make it one of great interest and profit.

We urge that each pastor make an earnest effort to place a copy of Go Forward in every home in his charge; that the Foreign and Domestic Missionary collections be taken at an early date.

The assessments for the ensuing year are as follows, the 10% being distributed to the several districts upon the basis of last year's assessment:

CHURCH EXTENSION BOARD.

While the receipts of this year show increased interest in the cause of Church Extension they are about $700 short of the assessments.

Winona District paid its assessment in full.

Four charges have not reported to this Board.

Seventeen churches asked for $2090 and we have had only a little more than $1500 with which to meet these demands. This shows the necessity of assessments being paid in full.

We insist that pastors do not encourage the making of applications to this Board when not really necessary.

We, again, specially emphasize the importance of insuring our houses of worship.

Resolution of Joint Board of Finance.

Considering a communication presented to us by the Trustees of M. E. Church. South, respecting the Endowment Fund of $5,000,000, which the church is endeavoring to raise for the more adequate support of the superannuate preachers and widows and orphans of deceased preachers of the connection, we cannot do better than to repeat our recommendation of last year which is as follows:

Resolved, That we urge the Presiding Elders and pastors to do all in their power to promote this worthy enterprise, charging the former to give prominence to the subject in their District and Quarterly Conferences, and the latter to present the cause and take collection on the 1st Sunday in April, or as near thereto as is practical.
